

A VICTORIAN CHRISTMAS: DESIGN A CARD FIT FOR A QUEEN!

THE BRIEF

Did you know Queen Victoria helped start the tradition of sending Christmas cards? In 1843, the very first Christmas card was sent during her reign. Now it's your turn to step back in time and become a card designer of the Victorian age!

OPEN TO ALL EYFS, KS1 AND KS2 PUPILS ACROSS THE JMAT.

CREATE A VICTORIAN-STYLE CHRISTMAS CARD
INSPIRED BY QUEEN VICTORIA'S ERA.

BE IMAGINATIVE, CREATIVE, AND HISTORICALLY INSPIRED!

SHORTLISTED ENTRIES WILL BE JUDGED BY ALFRED
RJ HAWKINS, TOWER OF LONDON HISTORIAN AND CURATOR!

WINNERS WILL RECEIVE TOWER OF LONDON
GOODIES!